

Amanda R. Coolidge

Associate

Bar admissions: Alabama, 2016

Practice Areas

- Workers' compensation
- Personal injury
- General civil litigation

Profile

Ms. Coolidge focuses on civil litigation and primarily defends employers in workers' compensation, retaliatory discharge, and employment discrimination claims. In addition, she has experience in personal injury and general tort litigation, local government and municipality law, labor and employment issues, regulatory compliance, and insurance appeals.

As a registered nurse who has performed intensive patient care as well as utilization reviews, Ms. Coolidge has a unique background that assists her in defending against workers' compensation and personal injury claims.
