Profile

Mr. Royer's practice is primarily focused on litigation. He practices primarily in the areas of local governmental liability, civil rights and constitutional litigation, employment, commercial disputes, and professional malpractice, both at the trial level and on appeal. He frequently serves as a court-appointed mediator in civil litigation for federal and state courts. He also regularly represents clients in general civil and insurance defense litigation.

Mr. Royer also litigates insurance coverage disputes.

Honors and Awards

- Recognized by The Best Lawyers in America since 2005, Mr. Royer is listed in the areas of First-Amendment litigation, labor and employment litigation (on behalf of management), municipal law, and mediation. Best Lawyers has named him a Lawyer of the Year twice: for labor and employment litigation in 2013 and again in 2021. Best Lawyers names only a single lawyer in each practice area in a metropolitan area as its Lawyer of the Year for that metropolitan area. Lawyers honored as Lawyer of the Year are selected based on particularly impressive voting averages received during the exhaustive peer-review assessments conducted with thousands of leading lawyers each year.
- SuperLawyers.com has named him an Alabama Super Lawyer for 2008 and for 2011 through 2020 in the areas of appellate practice, civil litigation, and state, local, and municipal law.
- Mr. Royer has also been named a Fellow of the Alabama Law Foundation. Only one percent of the Alabama bar membership can be elected to the fellows program. The fellows program honors lawyers who have been members of the bar at least 10 years and who have demonstrated outstanding dedication to their profession and to their community.

No representation is made that the quality of legal services to be performed is greater than the quality of legal services performed by other lawyers.

- Mr. Royer is rated by Martindale-Hubbell as AV Preeminent ®.
